DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings were received on 10/24/2006. These drawings are accepted.

Reasons for allowance

1. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Claims 1-2 are allowable over the prior art of record, because the prior art of record does not disclose that "a 3-state buffer which is driven by a second power voltage that is supplied from the power unit of said second apparatus and in which an output of a signal that is supplied from said second apparatus is controlled by an electric potential at said power node; and an analog switch which is driven by said second power voltage and in which a connection between an output side of said 3-state buffer and a logic circuit in said first apparatus is controlled by the electric potential at said power node". Along with the rest of the claim.

Claim 3 is allowable over the prior art of record, because the prior art of record does not disclose that "a 3-state buffer which is driven by a second power voltage that is supplied from the power unit of said second apparatus, which controls a signal that is supplied from said second apparatus in accordance with a control voltage that is applied to a control terminal thereof, and which supplies said signal to a logic circuit in said first circuit; and an analog switch which is driven by said second power voltage and in which a connection between said power node and the control terminal of said 3-state buffer is controlled by said control signal to provide the control voltage". Along with the rest of the claim

Claim 4 is allowable over the prior art of record, because the prior art of record does not disclose that " the 3-state buffer has a driving terminal that receives the power voltage from the second circuit as a driving voltage, and a control terminal that receives the power voltage from the first circuit as a control voltage; and an analog switch that prevents current produced by a potential difference between the driving voltage and control voltage from flowing to the protective diode, by cutting off sending of the data from a data output terminal of the 3-state buffer to the data input terminal of the first circuit when supply of the power voltage from the first power unit is terminated". Along with the rest of the claim

Conclusion

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Yamamot (US 4,608,504) discloses an interface circuit for an information-processing device, consisting of a plurality of tri-state buffers and a plurality of units with respective power supplies.
